

CONSTRUCTION PLAYGROUND

A construction playground is open for children in the age of 8-12, born in 1997-2001. At a construction playground children can build huts or whatever they can think of. Placement at a construction playground is not available so the children are free to come and go as they please. Instructors are on site during opening hours and assist handy children with their constructions. The registration fee for construction playgrounds is 600 IKR and registration opens on May 3rd. Opening hours for the construction playgrounds is variable by neighborhoods but information can be obtained at every leisure centre or at www.itr.is/sumar

SUMMER WORKSHOPS FOR 10-12 YEAR OLD CHILDREN

The Reykjavík leisure centres offer various workshops for 10-12 year old children, born in 1997-1999. A diverse selection of workshops and interesting events is being offered that last for half a day or a whole day and each event and workshop must be registered for separately. There is great diversity on the agenda so all children should be able to find something that suits them. Available are workshops related to outdoors activities and exercise, cooking, arts and more. Placement is not available and so attendance to the workshops is the parents' or guardians' responsibility. Experienced instructors administer the workshops and accompany the children during the entire duration of the workshop. Registration fee for the workshops is 300 IKR or 600 IKR depending on the scope, duration and subject of each workshop. Registration opens on May 3rd. Further information can be obtained at every leisure centre or at www.itr.is/sumar

SUMMER OPENINGS FOR YOUTH CENTERS FOR TEENS

The youth centers are open during the winter for all teens, born in 1994-1996, all over the city. This year several youth centers will remain open into the summer or until July 9th. Experienced instructors work at the youth centers who oversee the activities but attendance is free and open for all teens. Occasionally a fee for materials is requested if the agenda requires it. Opening hours for the youth centers this summer is either in the afternoon or in the evenings. Further information can be found at the leisure centers, at the youth centre's website of Facebook page or at www.itr.is/sumar
