

Developing leisure activities
are very important for children

Are you eligible for financial benefit for your child?*

Social counsellors in the social services office in your district will provide you with necessary information.

 According to Art. 16 of the welfare regulation issued by the City of Reykjavik, special financial benefits are granted to those parents whose income is comparable with or lower than the minimal welfare (115.567 kr.– per person, 184.907 kr.– per married couple/cohabitants) to cover the costs of children's participation in social and leisure activities, summer camps, leisure homes, kindergarten or school meals. The regular amount is 11.635 kr. monthly per child. Social counsellors in the social services office in your district will provide you with necessary information.*